

Years 3 and 4 - Autumn Term - History- How can we benefit from change?

Key Knowledge

Historical periods are placed in chronological order.

Prehistoric Stone Age	Prehistoric Mesolithic & Neolithic	Prehistoric Bronze Age	Prehistoric Iron Age	Classical Roman Period	Medieval Anglo-Saxons	Medieval Norman Conquest	Tudor & Stuart	Georgian Period	Victorian Period	Recent History
2 million - 10,000 BC	10,000 BC	2500 BC	800 BC	43 AD	400's	442c Kingdom of Gwynedd	1485 Henry VIII	1714 1770's - late industry	1837 Queen Victoria	1900 WWI 1914-18 WWII 1939-45

Romans

Chronological

31
54
52
→
5
4
3
2
1

Period

Key Knowledge

Relevant questions support key understanding about a historical period.

Key Knowledge

The Romans invaded Britain in AD42.

Invasion

Boundary

Key Knowledge

The Romans invaded to expand their empire, which led to a number of changes in Britain, for example, the Romans established new towns and cities, many of which became important urban centers.

Claudius

Defence

Attack

Boudicca

Rebellion

Celtic

Key Knowledge

Boudicca, queen of the Iceni tribe in ancient Britain, led a major uprising against the occupying Roman forces around AD 60-61.

Years 3 and 4 - Autumn Term - History- How can we benefit from change?

Key Knowledge

Boudicca's revolt was a significant event in Roman Britain and brought about substantial changes.

Tribe

Boudicca

Key Knowledge

To keep the Scots out of England, the Roman's built Hadrian's Wall starting in AD122.

Hadrian

Strategy

Key Knowledge

The Romans believed in many gods and goddesses who controlled different parts of the world and aspects of life and each god and goddess had unique powers and responsibilities.

Battle

Key Knowledge

The Roman roads linked towns that had been built. They built the first roads in Britain.

Empire

Romans

Key Knowledge

Roman roads were mainly built in a straight line and followed the same pattern around towns.

Empire

Period

